SILVER & WHITE GOLD

Ashes into Glass jewellery symbolises eternal love and togetherness. It holds a lifetime of special memories and tells a story that is completely personal to you.

Your Ashes into Glass stone is hand-crafted from your loved one's ashes together with coloured glass crystals and molten crystal glass. It is cut, polished and toughened before being set in the solid, cast mount. The stone is more durable than the metal and the colour will stay strong over time, reflecting the bond you share with your loved one.

Each Ashes into Glass stone is unique and just like your loved one, it will possess its own character. It may remind you of a starry night's sky, a wispy cloud up above, or maybe the ashes floating on a breeze.

Your own personal message is delicately engraved onto your item of jewellery.

Rings are hand-made to fit your finger.

Pendants come complete with an 18" hallmarked chain.

We require only one teaspoon of ashes per item and return what we don't use with your completed order.

You have a choice of five classic colours.

GOLD JEWELLERY

Ashes into Glass jewellery is hand-crafted in our specialist workshops. The mounts have a timeless, classic style and are designed to hold the most precious of stones. In the stone, the ashes dance with reflections of light, bringing the stone to life and reminding you that your loved one's spirit will always be with you.
